Algier, July 23.

ON the 19th Inſtant a Conſpiracy againſt the Life of our Dey was diſcovered. Nine of the Conſpirators have been taken and ſtrangled, and Men are ſent in Purſuit of others. On the 5th of this Month about three in the Afternoon we had a violent Earthquake here, which threw down four Houſes and killed 9 Perſons. On the 20th came in one of the Corſairs belonging to this Place, which having met a ſmall Sloop on the Coaſt of Portugal carrying Britiſh Colours, manned with four Engliſhmen and two Portugueſe, took her. One of the Portugueſe was prevailed on by a Promiſe of his Freedom to own himſelf to be the Captain of that Veſſel, and that the Cargo was his: Upon this the Turks took out the Lading, which was Wheat, ſtript the Veſſel of her Rigging, turned the Hull adrift, and brought the Men in hither. The Britiſh Conſul Mr. Thomſon appearing for the four Engliſhmen, obtained their Liberty, with an Order for the Captain of the Corſair to be committed to Priſon, and there to receive 500 Blows: But the Captain's Friends making earneſt Application to the Conſul to interceed with the Governour in his Behalf; upon his Promiſe never to commit any Abuſe on the Subjects of the King of Great Britain, and to reſtore whatever he had taken belonging to the Veſſel, he was pardoned.

Geneva, Sept. 28. The King of Sicily having ſtaid ſome Time at Chamberry, made ſeveral Regulations and reformed ſome Abuſes with reſpect to the Senate at that Place and to the Dutchy of Savoy, removed from thence to Annecy on the 19th Inſtant. His Majeſty ſpent all the next Day, being Sunday, in Devotions before the Shrine of St. Francis de Sale, whoſe Body lies there. On the 21ſt in the Morning he mounted on Horſeback, and ſet out to return directly to Turin, deſigning to lye that Night at the Abbey of Thamiers. At his leaving Chamberry his Majeſty declared that he will return thither next Year with the whole Royal Family. Among the Regulations which he has made in Savoy, he has diſcharged the People of the Capitation that had ſubſiſted from the Time the French were Maſters of that Dutchy, and remitted alſo two Quarters of the Taille payable this Year. The Earl of Wharton left this Place laſt Week, to return to Paris. We have in this Town a conſtant Garriſon of about 700 Men regular Troops, and the Militia is kept in very good Order.

Vienna, Sept. 30. Our laſt Letters from the Camp before Temeſwaer, are of the 22d Inſtant. They import, that the Imperialiſts had carried on their Approaches from the 11th to that Day without any Interruption by Sallies; and with little Loſs of Men and Officers, only two Captains and one Ingenier being killed, two Ingeniers wounded, and the Prince of Aremberg wounded with a Shot in the Cheek, but without Danger. In the ſaid Time, between the 11th and 22d, the Beſiegers had recieved Supplies of heavy Artillery and Ammunition from Buda, and having raiſed ſeveral Batteries of Cannon and Mortars, had thrown Abundance of Bombs into the Place with great Execution, diſmounted moſt of the Enemy's Guns that annoyed them, made a large Breach in the Palank, and having advanced by Saps to the Ditch, began in the Night of the 21ſt to make a Gallery over it, and to fill it with Faſcines, in order to ſtorm the ſaid Breach in the Palank the 22d or 23d in the Evening. The Imperialiſts are ſupplied with Meal and Wine in great Plenty and very cheap from Tranſylvania; whence Count Steinville arrived in the Camp on the 22d in the Morning, with the two Battallions of Virmont, one of Broune, and one of Ottacker Staremberg, and the two Regiments of Horſe of Steinville and Newbourg. There were uncertain and different Advices, importing in general that that a Body of 40000 Turks and Tartars, followed by another Body of greater Strength, was advancing to attempt to relieve Temeſwaer; upon which Collonel Baboczay with a Number of Huſſars, was detached on the 22d to get ſuch Intelligence of the Enemy as might be depended on: In the mean time the Imperial Army was diſpoſed in the propereſt manner, to prevent and repel any Surprize or other Attempt of the Infidels. 'Tis adviſed from Buda the 26th, that Prince Emanuel of Savoy who the Beginning of this Campaign broke his Leg by a Fall with his Horſe, is ſo well recovered as to be able to walk; and that the Generals Althan and Falkenſtein arrived there the 24th from the Army, both of them very much indiſpoſed. We have an Account from Peterwaradin, that the Naval Force of the Turks on the Danube, conſiſting of about 50 Veſſels, advanced on the 13th Inſtant with Deſign to attack the Imperial Squadron which has its Station at the Mouth of the Tibiſcus: But obſerving that Captain Schwendiman who commands that Squadron, was prepared to give them a good Reception, that in order to it he had ranged his Ships and Veſſels a Broadſide croſs the River, with their heavieſt Cannon on that ſide where the Turks muſt have come on, and that his Decks were covered with Imperial Foot as well as with Mariners, they retired in the Night between the 14th and 15th; ſo that the Navigation both of the Danube and the Tibiſcus is free and open, as well for the Sutlers who carry Proviſions to the Army, as for our Tranſports with Ammunition.

Hampton Court, Oct. 7. This Day Count Guicciardi, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Modena, had private Audience of Leave of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduc'd by the Right Honourable Paul Methuen, Eſq; One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. DR. Stoughton's great Cordial Elixir; which, for all Ailments of the Stomach, and Impurities of the Blood, as Scurvies, Dropſies, &c. excells any one Preparation that ever was made; 'tis the moſt pleaſant Bitter in the World; moſt Gentlemen drink it in Wine, Ladies in Tea, and others in Beer, Ale, Cyder, &c. now famous throughout moſt Parts of Europe; few go to Sea, or travel without it. Merchants ſend great Quantities abroad, and moſt Captains and Maſters of Ships take it with them, it ſelling beyond Sea at a great Price, and there is room for large Profit. The Virtues and Effects of which are ſufficiently known, and in the Bills with it particularly deſcribed, being in French, Dutch and Spaniſh, as well as Engliſh, prepared only by the ſaid Dr. Stoughton in Bartholomew-lane, near the Royal Exchange. It often gives preſent Eaſe in the Gout, eſpecially if in the Stomach or Bowels, taken in ſtrong Mobotam Wine, and a double Doſe.
